A Little Talk to Subscribers. The long dull summer is about at an end and the TELEGRAPH hopes to be able in a short while to enlarge and otherwise improve, but in this work we must have the co-operation of every subscriber. We have many subscribers who are in arrears and during the past ten days have sent them statements of their arrearages. We hope that none of these will be slow to take the hint and help the TELEGRAPH to put on new life.

THE Hampton Advocate calls with many of our friends and that they people who have the temerity to should not hesitate to respond when it becomes necessary for us to send out bills.
